Consortium of European Research Libraries

CERL ANNUAL SEMINAR 2012

Accessing heritage research collections through digitisation: models and use
Tuesday 30 October: 10.00-17.00. British Library Conference Centre, London
Attendance is free, but please register with secretariat@cerl.org

cilip
Chartered Institute of Library and Information
Professionals

BRITISH LIBRARY

09.30 - 10.00	Registration
10.00 - 10.15	Opening & Welcome – Kristian Jensen (Head of Arts & Humanities, British Library, London)
	– Ulf Göranson (Chair, Consortium of European Research Libraries)

SESSION 1

10.15 - 10.40	Planning digitisation projects – Aly Conteh (British Library, London)
10.40 - 11.05	Licensing models – Rachel Marshall (British Library, London)
11.05 - 11.15	Questions
11.15 - 11.45	COFFEE

SESSION 2

11.45 - 12.10	Case study 1: Google Books – José Antonio Magán Wals (Complutense University, Madrid)
12.10 - 12.35	Case study 2: Judaica Europeana – Rachel Heuberger (Goethe University Library, Frankfurt)
12.35 - 12.45	Questions
12.45 - 14.00	LUNCH

SESSION 3

14.00 - 14.25	Case study 3: Gallica – Eric Dussert (Bibliothèque Nationale de France, Paris)
14.25 - 14.50	Case study 4: Working with commercial partners
	– Marieke van Delft (National Library of the Netherlands, The Hague)
14.50 - 15.15	Case study 5: JISC Historic Books and addressing the needs of researchers
	– Gabriel Egan (JISC Historic Books Advisory Board, UK)
15.15 - 15.30	Questions
15.30 - 16.00	COFFEE

SESSION 4

16.00 - 16.30	Panel discussion: Scholars discuss their experiences of working with digitisation products, and how features such as access, content selection, licensing restrictions, and product design impact on their research. Panel chair: – Andrew Prescott (King's College, London)
16.30 - 16.45	Round up – Amanda Saville (Chair, CILIP Rare Books & Special Collections Group)
16.45 - 17.00	Closing statement – Ulf Göranson (Chair, Consortium of European Research Libraries)

www.cerl.org
secretariat@cerl.org

Sponsored by:

CENGAGE Learning

BRILL

Adam Matthew DIGITAL